

Have you guessed the theme for February's Can't-Miss-Extravaganza?

Temple Shalom and Sisterhood cordially invite you to:

An Evening in Casablanca

Saturday, February 28, 2009 7:30 p.m.
Crowne Plaza, Summit Ballroom

Top 10 reasons to spend An Evening in Casablanca:

- 10) Enjoy an evening hosted by KCMN's 1040 AM radio personality Tron Simpson
- 9) Risk-free gambling all night long with Dueces Wild's Casino gaming professionals
- 8) Listen and dance to two amazing bands: Otis Bump & the Riptides (blues influence),
Followed by Steve Harget's eleven piece orchestra, The Swing Connection
- 7) Exciting Silent Auction
- 6) Hors d'oeuvres, chocolate AND champagne
- 5) $1,000 in gaming chips per person
- 4) Socialize with your fellow congregants and meet new people
- 3) Goodwill toward our Jewish community
- 2) Show support for your Temple and Sisterhood

And number one reason to come to An Evening in Casablanca: Show the community what kind of party Temple Shalom/Sisterhood can put on and have everyone talking about it!

All this for only $65 per person
We look forward to seeing you there!
