What are some of your particular strengths that would make you a strong teacher aide?

What skills do you hope to develop in the coming year as a teacher aide?

Religious school teachers/madrachim are responsible for their classes. Being a teacher means taking on a leadership role with our students. Please describe an experience when you showed leadership and responsibility in a difficult situation.

Please list any Sundays or Tuesdays that you know you will not be available to teach or to participate in staff meetings (ie, family vacation, camp, job, sport/school activities)?

Questions, Comments or special requests/circumstances:

Description: This teacher aide is applying to work with students in the Temple Shalom Religious School under the direction of the Director of Education and the teacher he/she is assigned to assist. S/he will help to instruct the children from the provided curriculum materials and perform a variety of teacher assigned tasks to help the students and our schools operate smoothly. This may include clerical work, crafts, or any extra duties the teacher may assign. Teacher aides are expected to attend a training session August 17, 2014 (additional training in the first year on staff will be announced). At this training session, you will receive a copy of the curriculum and staff expectations, final school calendar and work with your teacher to understand the duties that will be assigned to you. You be trained on how to complete the assigned tasks, and learn about learning styles, instruction for individual and diverse needs, Jewish Values instruction and guidance . You will be a role model in all ways for our younger religious school students.

If you are planning to receive credit from your school for community service, you will need to keep the proper records, and ask the Director of Education to sign your card.
